

The JOINT COMMITTEE for the COMMEMORATION of the ANNIVERSARY of the BATTLE of CRETE and the GREEK CAMPAIGN

AUSTRALIANS & GREEKS 115 YEARS OF ALLIANCE IN WAR & PEACE

- AUSTRALIANS & ANZACS - WORLD WAR I
- ANZACS IN GREECE - WORLD WAR II
- AUSTRALIAN INTERWAR REFUGEE CENTRES
- GREEK VOLUNTEERS GALLIPOLI CAMPAIGN
- ★ ORIGINS OF GREEK-AUSTRALIAN SERVICEMEN & WOMEN
- ✚ ANZAC CEMETERIES

Australian Army nurses encamped near Salonika (Courtesy, Australian War Memorial)

Above: Stella Miles Franklin, assistant cook in the Scottish Women's hospital in Macedonia, 1917-18.

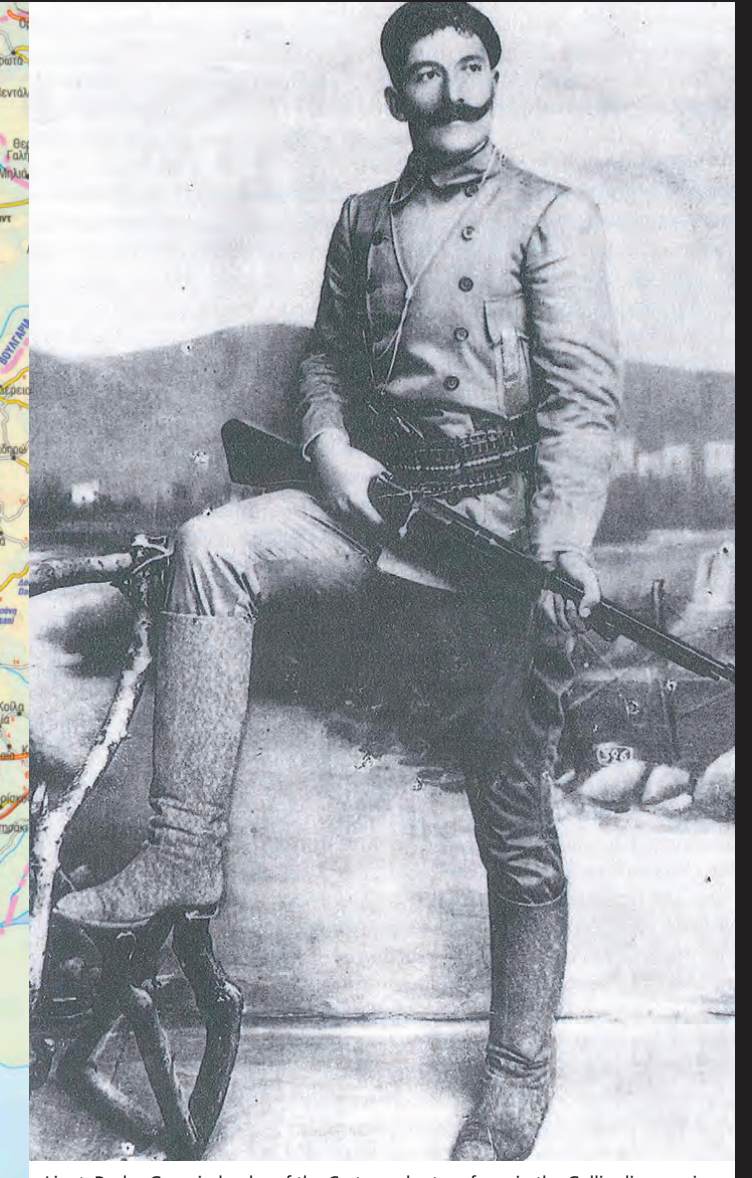

Above: Major C. B. R. Laidlaw, MC, RSMC.

Right: In a trench at the front in Macedonia. Major N.H. Overton (left).

Major G.D. Trevar, c. 1922.

Lieut. Pavlos Gyparis, leader of the Cretan volunteer force in the Gallipoli campaign.

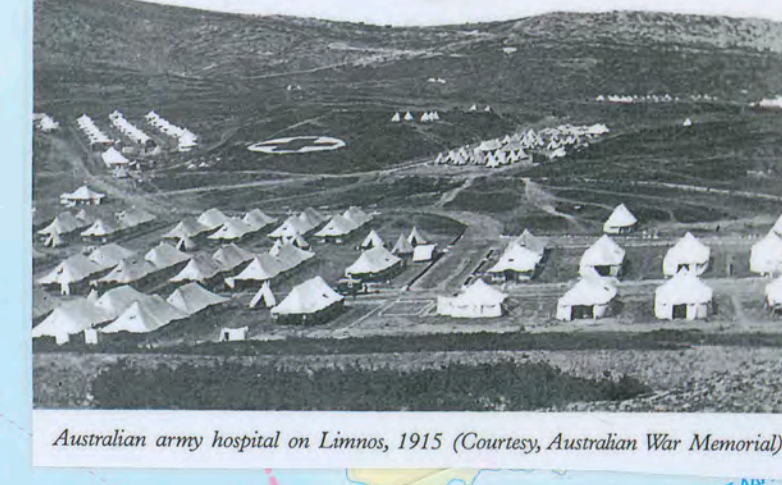

Joyce Nankivell-Loch

Anzac and Greek soldiers, Athens 1941

Nurse in Lemnos - Gallipoli Campaign

Australian army hospital on Lemnos, 1915 (Courtesy, Australian War Memorial)

Francis Manu South African Boer War

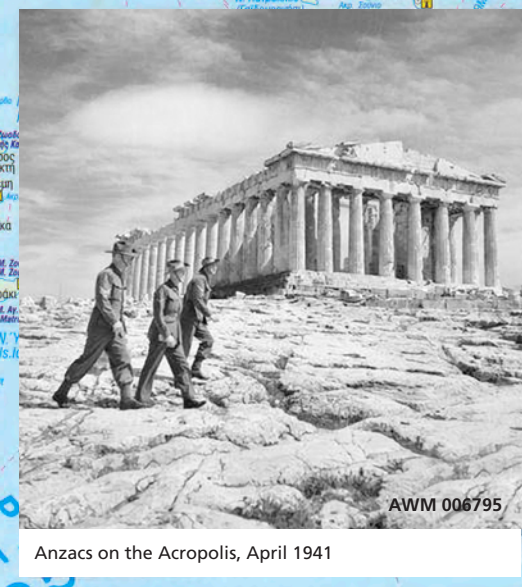

Children repatriated from Belgium, departing Sydney for Melbourne, to rejoin their parents, 12 June 1919 (Courtesy, Sydney Morning Herald)

John Callinicos, 1942, age 20

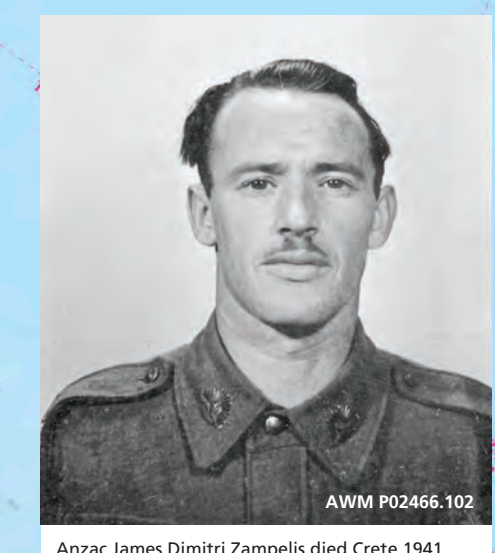

AWM 006797

Anzacs on the Acropolis, April 1941

Anzac Captain Reginald Saunders, Battle of Crete

Anzac James Dimitri Zampelli died Crete 1941

Corporal Angelo Barbouttis, New Guinea

	2/1 INF BN
	2/2 INF BN
	2/3 INF BN
	2/4 INF BN
	2/5 INF BN
	2/6 INF BN
	2/7 INF BN
	2/8 INF BN
	2/11 INF BN

