As has been the custom since 1967, the Symposium will be preceded by a ceremony in the Greek Orthodox Church. This year the venue has been moved to Belmore, but, again, we will celebrate the Feast Day of the patron saint of the village of Karavas, Kythera, Ellas, Ayios Haralambos, with a traditional ceremony.

The fully adorned icon of Ayios Haralmbos will be paraded around the (interior of) the church at Belmore at 9:45 am.

We are hopeful (airline itinerary's permitting) that our special guest this year will be the Mayor of Kythera, Theothoris Koukoulis
