

in the country towns of Longreach and Blackall in Queensland. These they manage in a spirit of exemplary unity and skill. Their commercial name is: Comino Bros.

VRETOS G. MARGETIS

Mr Vretos G. Margetis, who hails from Kythera, is extremely young, but capable and full of drive. He is today owner and manager of two splendid and profitable shops standing in the most central locations in the great city of Sydney. These shops afford work to many fellow Greeks.

Mr Margetis came to Australia in 1903 and, after working hard for a few years, bought the first of his shops. The second he bought shortly afterwards, in partnership with his brother, Minas.

As his commercial career has developed, Mr Margetis has indeed been revealed as a young man of worth. Thanks to his polite behaviour, he has always earned the goodwill of those who have come to know him personally.

ANTONIOS N. ARONIS

In Brisbane stands the shop belonging to Mr Antonios N. Aronis, from Kythera. He came to Australia in 1908 and, after engaging in various types of work, opened a shop in partnership with his elder brother, Panayiotis, on the main street of the great city of Brisbane.

LIFE IN AUSTRALIA